Re: The Travelers Indemnity Company v. Harleysville Insurance Co. of New York
Docket No.: 21 Civ. 290 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

My office represents The Travelers Indemnity Company ("Travelers") in the above referenced matter. Since the initial status conference, Neil C. Mascolo, Jr. with Vigorito, Barker, Patterson, Nichols & Porter LLP has taken over representation of Harleysville Ins. Co. of New York ("Harleysville"). I have consulted with Mr. Mascolo this morning and we submit this joint request to adjourn the Status Conference scheduled before Your Honor on Tuesday, September 7th at 11:00 a.m. Mr. Mascolo and I apologize for this late request as this hearing did not appear on our respective calendars, due in part to the other status conference scheduled in this matter.

In support of our request, we jointly report that we have been in regular contact and have met and conferred about the status of discovery and the possibility and terms of any potential resolution. The parties are still actively discussing and considering possible resolution options. In addition, the parties have met with Magistrate Judge Debra C. Freeman to further discuss settlement options. In fact, the parties are set for a follow-up conference with Magistrate Judge Freeman on Thursday, September 9th.

In light of the foregoing, the parties believe that it would be beneficial to adjourn the status conference scheduled for Tuesday, September 7th to a date after the follow-up conference with Magistrate Judge Freeman on September 9, 2012. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that this Court set a further status conference at the Court's convenience after September 9, 2021.

Respectfully submitted:
